EDITOR'S NOTE

We are happy to have the 43rd issue (2021/Fall) of our Journal of Modern Turkish History Studies with the scientific world. In this issue of our magazine, which has been in publication for more than 30 years, we present to our readers valuable works under different topics, belonging to the last century of the Ottoman Empire and various periods of the history of the Republic, as in our previous issues. In addition to Turkish publications, we try to include studies in English, French and German as well as studies on different subjects of our recent history in our journal.

In our journal, the evaluation and publication processes of the articles are planned based on the arrival dates of their studies. Each study is included in plagiarism screening programs (iThenticate) before the peer-review process. After the editorial board, blind review is applied and articles are reviewed by at least two referees who are experts on the subject of the research.

I would like to thank our esteemed scientists who contributed to the meeting of our 43rd issue with the world of science and make us happy by sharing their work with us and those who contributed to the publication process of our journal and wish you a pleasant reading.
